Fiction Books for Children/Teenagers

These books are written/co-written by Mary Brady of the excellent vegan campaign group Realfood (www.realfood.org.uk).

Under the Stairs by Mary Brady. £4.99. Aimed at Teenagers but popular with adults too. Deals with all aspects of animal rights, from veganism and anti-vivisection to zoos. It draws the parallel between abuse of animals and humans, but is also positive, showing a compassionate and cruelty free lifestyle.

The Umpteenth Dalmatian by Mary Brady and Steve Hutton. £2.99. Aimed at young children. The story of a Dalmatian puppy, who is very scared when someone buys her from the farmer, but is later reunited with her mum in this heart-warming book. Beautifully illustrated by Steve Hutton.

Tiger Fruit by Mary Brady and Steve Hutton. £2.50. A tiger lives in the heart of the forest, but at times his world edges onto human territory. What happens when human and animal worlds collide? How can children save a tiger? A sympathetic look at the life of a tiger, this story surprises the reader with the courage of some humans against the inhumanity of others.

Vegan Permaculture by Graham Burnett

Graham Burnett is a vegan permaculturist.

Permaculture - A Beginner's Guide. £8. A guide on the principles of sustainability and working with rather than against nature on your land. New updated second edition.

Well Fed Not An Animal Dead. £4. A guide to the wider implications of veganism, including recipes and cookery guidelines, growing your own vegan organic food, food for free, vegan mothers and infants, and making your own alcohol!

Earth Writings. £9. Graham's articles, artwork, songs and conversations.

Towards an Ecology of the Self. £3. Explores the role of the 'personal' in permaculture design systems.

Happy, Caring, Healthy and Sharing. £3. Introduction to the compassionate ecological veganism with young people particularly in mind.

Wall Charts

Liz Cook is a vegan illustrator who has produced these extremely popular and colourful wall charts with a wipe-clean surface. The Vegan Nutrition Chart is shown above (88 x 18.5cm). Note that all are horizontal except for Natural Cleaning Solutions, which is vertical

Books published by Harry Mather

Harry is the editor of Vegan Views magazine, and has self-published these two books:

Looking for a Green World by Harry Mather. £2.50. Self published by Harry in 1983, it covers ecology, animal rights, unemployment, the green movement, war and disarmament.

Sunshine and Shadow: an Autobiography by Wilfred Crone. £7.50. Wilfred was a fruitarian and published many articles in Vegan Views magazine. He also wrote down many of his stories, and they were discovered after he died. Harry Mather put this book together from them.

Book by the Vegan Organic Network (+ supporters)

Growing Green - Organic Techniques for a Sustainable Future by Jenny Hall and Iain Tolhurst. £18.99. This is the Vegan Organic Network's long-awaited book on growing fruit and veg without animal inputs (e.g. animal manures, blood fish & bone, etc). It's the first of it's kind in the world, and is a very important book to veganism.

Vegan Rustic Cooking for All Seasons by Diana White £9.95. New edition with 50 exciting new recipes added. Diana is an active member of the Vegan Organic Network.

We regularly update our downloadable vegan mail-order book catalogue on our website, so please check www.octoberbooks.org/veg for new additions. Vegetarian Britain - we have stopped selling the current edition, but will sell the new edition as soon as it is available.

About October Books

We are a not-for-profit co-operative bookshop in Southampton, selling general and radical books. We also sell a range of specialist books by mail order, which allows people to avoid using big companies like Amazon. Most mail-order book companies use new packaging materials, which is environmentally wasteful. We instead re-use used packaging materials (e.g. cardboard boxes, jiffy bags, bubble wrap that were used for packaging for the books we receive from distributors) for your order. Our printed version of this catalogue is printed on recycled paper. We will not pass any of your details on to any other company/organisation.
